

77-7046/19

4 April 1977

Dear Mr. Shackman,

Thanks so much for your nice note of congratulations on my new appointment. I will do my best to live up to your expectations.

Enclosed is the photograph you requested. Again, thanks for your support.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
Admiral, U.S. Navy
Director of Central Intelligence

Enclosure

Mr. Arthur O. Shackman

STAT

allant
77-6616
Answer
See ER-77-704
A-22

EXCISE REGISTRY FILE A-22

FILE COPY - RETURN TO EXCISE REGISTRY

STAT

Arthur O. Hackman
Approved For Release 2004/02/19 : CIA-RDP80M00165A000500030044-9

77-7046

Dear Admiral Stonyfield Turner
Congratulations and Best Wishes on your being selected Director of the C. I. A.

and you truly deserve this most important position because of your giving so many tireless years of service to our great Country and people - and the U.S. Navy -

Did you serve in the Pacific
during World War II?

May God Bless you and your Family Always.

Respectfully
Hackman

P.S. Would greatly appreciate an autograph photograph of yourself.
Thank you

Executive Registry

77-6616

Dear Director Admiral Stanfield
Turner,

Congratulations and Best Wishes on your becoming Director of the C.I.A.
a most important and honored position.

And the defense and security of our Great Country and the World should be our First concern and have the fullest confidence in our President and you as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency -

May God Bless You, our President and our Country always -

Respectfully Yours,
Arthur O. Shackman March 1, 1977

P.S. Would greatly appreciate an auto graph photograph of yourself Thank You!

Arthur O. Shackman

